The Bishop-Elect, Msgr Dermot Farrell, came to meet the priests of the diocese on Wednesday at St. Kieran's College. It was a most inspiring introduction and we look forward in great hope to the future of the diocese where we will work together in a spirit of fraternity and friendship. The Bishop-Elect will now make preparations for his ordination on 11th March at 3.00p.m. in St Mary's Cathedral by spending time on retreat. He asked us to remind the people of our parishes to keep him in our prayers. Msgr. Farrell looks forward to visiting the parishes and meeting with the parishioners. As our Confirmation will take place before his ordination, the priests of St Canice's will celebrate the sacrament this year and the new bishop will come to meet the confirmandi at St Canice's School sometime near Easter.

Our congratulations to Michelle Slattery and Shane Kelly who were married in St. Canice's this Friday.

Service of Prayer for Christian Unity

We will pray together on Thursday, 25th January at 7.30p.m. The preacher will be Dean Katherine Poulton of St. Canice's Cathedral. We welcome all to pray in the spirit of Jesus "that all may be one".
