As you know, the referendum on the 8th Amendment to the Constitution will take place on Friday, May 25th. If passed, this will remove legal protection from unborn babies up to 12 weeks gestation and allow future governments to legislate to broaden this without requiring a further vote from the Irish people.

Can you assist in any of the following ways?

Canvassing: This is very rewarding and effective...we've had people say 'I wasn't going to vote but I am now' to keep the 8th. Training is provided and we go in pairs, beginners can go with the more experienced, if desired. Leaflet drops: If canvassing is not for you, we need leaflet droppers especially for the smaller towns. Posters: There are 250 posters to be put up in Kilkenny city asap, can you help? Prayers: While this is a human issue, not a 'religious issue', prayer is vital, please include the protection of the unborn in your prayers or consider saying a Novena for life
