Learn to Live a Life of Love

On Friday I had a prayer session with the CBS Secondary students. It was unreal. As I was speaking over the school intercom, I was hoping that my prayers and words were coming across. It was like a leap into the dark. I played two pieces of soothing music and had a few yarns to tell. Interrupting the regular class timetable is always a welcome break- a bit of light relief. Especially in these times when students and teachers are wearing masks, it is difficult to identify anybody. What a change –what a strange experience. It must be extra difficult for young people to live through these times.

During Friday morning Mass I read from the Second Letter of St. John. There was a line which hit me with great force. "To love is to live according to his commandments: this is the commandments which you have heard since the beginning to live a life of love." All the Ls- Learn to live a life of love. May the Spirit of the Lord strengthen us and support us in all our efforts to be faithful in our love of God and one another, especially the young by our encouragement and the old by our compassion, patience and gentleness. - Jim
