A Second Chance

We have been celebrating in St. Canice's School the Sacrament of Reconciliation or First Confession. On Thursday morning we held a Service of Reconciliation in the Church which was watched by the children and their parents at home. Thanks to Yvonne, the School Secretary, for producing a beautiful booklet for the occasion. Our gratitude also extends to the Principal, Maria Comerford, and the Teachers of Second Class- Ms Murphy, Ms.Mc Cormack, Ms. Campbell and Ms Aylward. May these young boys and girls always be aware that the loving kindness of God is always there for us, especially when we are sorry for our sins. In our culture there is a sort of unforgiving spirit. When someone in a position of leadership makes a mistake, there is often a call for his immediate resignation. The possibility of someone learning from his/her mistake and becoming a better leader because of it never seems to be a consideration. Jesus did not work on that principle when it came to the leader of the twelve, Peter. He had failed in a most serious manner imaginable, denying publicly three times any association with Jesus. The Risen Lord gave Peter a chance to reverse his three fold denial. Asking Peter three times "Do you love me?" Peter was invited to renew his love for Jesus. Once he did so, Jesus re-installed him in his leadership role in the Community, calling on him to be the chief shepherd of Jesus' Church, feeding his flock. This is how Jesus relates to us also. When we fail to love him, he continues to love us, and he continues to call out to us to renew our love of him. The question "Do you love me?" is always addressed to us, and we are always given the opportunity to answer his question as Jesus did, "Lord, you know I love you."- Fr. Jim
