Printed copies will be sent to all parishes in the diocese this week giving everyone the opportunity to read the responses submitted. This document, the Ossory submission will be presented to the Irish Conference of Bishops shortly before being included in the final Irish document which will then be sent forward to Rome. St Canice's Parish wishes to thank all those who made submissions in person, in writing and online and look forward to the next steps in the Irish Synodal journey

Pentecost Sunday 2022

St. Paul tells us on a number of occasions that God the Father has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts. The very first reading this Sunday makes the same point: the Holy Spirit descends upon the Apostles with the result that they overcome their fear and anxiety. They begin the communication of the good news, the Gospel. A sincere Christian will have a ruling sense of God's presence within him. The feast of Pentecost completes the work of God in our regard. The Holy Spirit wakes us up to the love of the Father and the indwelling of his divine Son dead and risen. Let us offer our best gifts in sacrifice to him who, instead of abhorring, has taken up his dwelling in these sinful hearts of ours. - FrTom
