Summertime

"Summertime and the living is easy, fish are jumping and the cotton is high." Isn't it wonderful! The sun is shining and the temperature is rising. Let us enjoy it. We give thanks to the Lord for these days of Summer and the opportunity to relax and recreate. I am looking forward to going to the mountains and savouring the sweet air of the Pyrenees. Every year when it comes to the school holidays and the scholars are 'liberated', I feel the pressure is off and we go in to Summer mode. May I wish you happy holidays and a time to get a break and relax. When I was a child, I loved going to Tramore on Nolan's bus. We were in another world at the beach. I am envious of those who have weeks to spend by the sea. Now, before the winter comes again, and the cost of heating etc, make the most of these days. There is a buzz about the town with the visitors and tourists walking the streets. Be friendly, make them welcome, chat them up. Our friendliness is the most appreciated aspect of our tourist industry. It costs nothing but makes a huge contribution to our economy and giving a livelihood to so many people working in the bars and restaurants. A kind word, a friendly greeting, and the time to enjoy a chat. May the Lord bless you all in these summer days - Fr Jim
