Blessings

1. There is a beautiful photo on Friday's Irish Times of Sofiia who celebrated her 6th birthday by the arrival of her father Stanislaw, home from Ukraine. It is such a time for all those families disturbed and separated by war. What an affliction! What a terrible loss of life and destruction of homes in towns and cities. Lord, send us peace.
2. The young son, Hamish in Creeeslough during the funeral of his Dad reminded us all to treasure our families and take care of one another. Our loved ones will not always be around. What a poignant appeal in the midst of grief. Lord, comfort your people
3. These days at Mass we have begun our reading from St. Paul's letter to the Ephesians. It is a beautiful book and it is so worthwhile reading and reflecting on. The first chapter calls us to bless the Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ who has blessed us in Christ. We have become the adopted children of God - brothers and sisters in Christ. Help us Lord to count our blessings, our many blessings.
Help us to name them and to be truly grateful. Thank you Lord. - Fr Jim
