Photos speak!

Do you notice as you get older and you look at photos taken years ago how much they mean. Looking at photos can take one back to memories of people and events and helps to reminisce and remember. I found myself rooting through old photos recently and it was a grand experience going down memory lane. In my prayer book, the breviary, there are memory cards of my Mam and Dad, of friends and loved ones who have died. Some of these cards are in books I use to study the scriptures and every now and again I am pleasantly surprised to look at familiar faces which pop out on these cards. How good it is to see them again to remember and to appreciate their love and friendships, their kindness and support, and the good times we had together.

During the Month of November we are remembering our beloved dead. We remember that the love we have for one another in this life is stronger than death. We pray for our loved ones who have died and we believe they can pray for us. Death did not break the Lord's Communion with his followers, and it does not break the communion between our loved ones and us.

God, the Father almighty, raised Jesus from the dead and he will give life to our own mortal bodies. We pray to him in faith; Lord bring us to life in Christ.
