Summer Holidays

There is great excitement these days in school as the pupils and teachers await the closure for Summer holidays. It is a lovely time. There are plays and sports days and school tours to keep the pupils busy. Holidays from school are a delightful memory for me too. While we didn't have the luxury of spending weeks by the sea, we did have enjoyable times. Going to Tramore on Nolan's bus from Callan was exciting. There were days when we got sun burned, enjoyed a swim and had a picnic on the Strand. We hired a tea pot, paid a deposit to ensure it was returned and what a wonderful taste that tea had. There were trips to Knockadoon Boy's Holiday Camp near Youghal. It was brilliant to have trips in the boat, a sing song around the camp fire, and play rounders or hurling all day long. During our holidays there was work to be done too. Thinning beet, saving hay and milking cows were all part of my youth. I hope you all get a break. It is good to have rest and relaxation. It doesn't have to be exotic or expensive. These days watching the people enjoying the swimming at the Weir reminded me that there is great enjoyment to be had in simple things. May you have time to enjoy the Summer and be refreshed by your break from the routine. God bless all our young people in holiday time. Keep them safe and well. They deserve the break after the exams. Enjoy! – Fr Jim
