Ecumenical Excursion!

During the week I fulfilled a lifetime ambition – to travel to the North of Ireland on the Free Travel pass! I was accompanied by my friends the former Rector of Rathdowney and his wife, John and Irene Murray. It was amazing to travel to Heuston, on the Luas, and from Connolly Station to Belfast Central Station. Passing along the East Coast by train, all with the blessing of Charlie Haughey, was a joyful and exhilarating experience. I was looking forward to seeing the Titanic Exhibition and I found it a most memorable adventure. I recommend it to you, and also the open top bus tour of Belfast. What a blessing to visit Belfast in peaceful times and be able to walk around at ease without the fear of explosions or shootings. Blessed are the peacemakers! How important it is that we live together, respecting our different traditions and our common heritage. If you have the free travel pass don't let it go to seed in your wallets. Use it and enjoy it while you can!
Jim.
