The Pope's Visit.

The atmosphere at the RDS at the Pastoral Congress on the Family was wonderful. The sight of people from all the nations was most impressive and it was interesting to visit all the stands related to the mission of the Church, religious orders and book stalls, religious goods and publications. It was lovely to meet people from all over Ireland and beyond. What we had in common was our faith and our own experience of Family.

We welcome the visit of Pope Francis and pray that he may encourage all of us to be the faithful, joyful followers of Jesus, giving witness to our faith and love by our way of life.

May all those people who suffered abuse at the hands of our colleagues find strength and hope in Francis's words of encouragement and wisdom. We wish all our parishioners who are travelling on Saturday and Sunday to see the POPE safe journeys. May the Lord bless us all at this time with hope. Let us open our hearts to receive the Good News from this inspiring successor of Peter. Francis – Cead mile failte !
