New Vicar General

In every Diocese, one of the priests is chosen to be the assistant and confidant of the Bishop. It is an onerous task which involves lots of trust and transparency. Bishop Niall has chosen Fr. Dan Carroll of St. John's to be V. G. No better man! We are delighted and appreciate the bishop's wise choice. Dan is friendly, approachable and a kind and decent human being. He is also a hardworking and sincere priest. May the Lord bless him for his generosity in accepting this added responsibility. We wish him our support, our loyalty and friendship.

Tidying Up!

I seem to be always tidying up and keeping in time with the correspondence etc. Today I came across cards and good wishes and I tried to answer them. How easy it is to be caught in the fast flow and miss out on saying thanks. Review is a word I often use. Looking back over the past month or week and seeing how many kindnesses I have received. I am so fortunate. Two years ago I had surgery – on this day. Look how well it all went.

51 years ago this Sunday I received Ordination. Look how well the Lord has looked after me.

Thank You – two small words – say a great deal. Omitting to say or forgetting to be appreciative is not worthy of our human dignity or the dignity of others. We can never say Thank You enough. May I say how much I appreciate all your goodness and kindness to me. May the Lord bless you abundantly. – Fr Jim
