Fraochan Sunday on Tory Hill

Members of the South Kilkenny Historical Society will join locals and others, on Sunday July 13th, for the annual climb of Tory Hill on Fraochan Sunday. This ancient tradition pre-dates Christianity and is associated with the ancient festival of Lughanasa.

Mass will be celebrated, near the summit, at 3pm.

Due to the limited availability of parking and to assist those not familiar with the area, a meeting point has been arranged for 1.30pm at Mullinavat Church Car Park, where it is suggested that people would car pool if possible.

Holidays

During the week I took a few days off to relax and sleep and recover a bit of energy. It has been a lovely time and a couple of days in Tramore did the trick. When we were children, I remember trips to Tramore on Nolan's bus, having the picnic on the Prom. and the tea in a pot hired from a café nearby. Golden memories of life in a simple style and in another age. Pope Leo has taken to the hills above Rome where it is cooler and refreshing with lovely breezes away from the heat of the city. He deserves his time of rest and relaxation. So too do all of you. Let's give thanks for the sunshine and the time of relaxation. May you be refreshed to live your lives in harmony with one another. May these days of Summer help us to come to know the Lord and grow in love for Him and for each other. – Fr. Jim
