Fun Times

Last week we had Italian Bride and Groom Simona and Dario who live near Paris and wished to get married in Kilkenny. We had great fun with the languages at the wedding. The Bride is learning Gaelic and she read the reading from Paul to the Corinthians with a beautiful blas. Most of the guests decided to spend their holidays in Kilkenny and to tour Ireland also.

We are doing our best to support the local economy and boost tourism! The reception was in Langton's The Set and it took a long time because in between the courses there were amusing intervals.

I was fortunate to get home for the evening Mass sober!!

“Kilkenny is beautiful”, they said. How fortunate we are to live in such a lovely city. Vive l'Irlande! – Fr. Jim
